This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. BY-LAWS

FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Adopted June 20th, 1849.

First.—Regular meetings shall be held on the third Wednesday of every month, at 5 o'clock, P. M., at the Special Term Court Room of the Supreme Court, or at such other place as may be designated by the Board.

Second.—At the first regular meeting after the annual election of Commissioners, the Board shall be organized by the election of a President and Clerk.

Third.—The roll shall be called precisely at the time appointed for meeting.

Fourth.—The President shall annually, on or before the first meeting next succeeding his election, appoint the following Standing Committees, to consist of three members each; a portion of each Committee shall be composed of newly elected Commissioners, and a portion also of those elected the preceding year:

1st. A Finance Committee.

2nd. An Auditing Committee on Accounts, whose duty it shall be to examine, audit and certify all bills presented to the Board of Education for payment or approval.

3d. A Committee to examine the reports of the several schools entitled to a proportion of the School Money, and to make an apportionment thereof.

4th. A Committee on applications for new schools, pursuant to the eighth section of the Act of 1844.

5th. A Committee on Buildings and Repairs.

6th. A Committee on Printing, who shall have the direction of all the printing ordered by the Board.

7th. A Committee on the examination of School Books.

8th. A Committee to prepare the Annual Report.

9th. A Committee on Evening Free Schools.

10th. A Committee, whose duty it shall be to examine the accounts of the Board in the Clerk's Office, and report semi-annually thereon, or oftener if necessary.

11th. Four Committees on examination of schools entitled to participate in the apportionment of the school moneys, whose duty it shall be, from time to time, to visit and examine into the condition of such schools in all respects, and to report to the Board the result of their examination in respect to each school semi-annually, or oftener in their discretion, or if required. The President shall assign to each Committee for visitation such particular schools as he shall see fit.

Fifth.—The President shall call Special Meetings of the Board whenever he may deem the same necessary, or at the request of any five Commissioners; and it shall be the duty of the Clerk to notify every Commissioner in writing, of the time and place of holding all Special and Stated meetings of the Board.

Sixth.—The Clerk shall have possession of all books and papers belonging to the Board, keep a faithful record of all proceedings, attend all committees when required, and perform such other duties as may be assigned him by the Board.

Seventh.—The Clerk shall make a quarterly statement to the Board of Education, to wit: on the third Wednesday of February,

May, August and November; exhibiting the amount of moneys expended in each ward for buildings, rents, repairs, teachers' wages, books, etc.; and also the amounts on deposit in bank to the credit of the Commissioners of the several wards.

Eighth.—Notice of any proposed alteration of these By-laws must be given at least one meeting previous to the time of action thereon.

RULES AND ORDERS

FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Adopted June 20th, 1849.

First.—In case the President shall not attend, the Clerk, on the appearance of a quorum, shall call the Board to order, when a President pro tem. shall be appointed by the Board, for that meeting, or until the appearance of the President.

Second.—The minutes of the last meeting shall be read by the Clerk, before proceeding to any other business.

Third.—The President, in all cases, has the right of voting. When the Board shall be equally divided, including his vote, the question shall be lost.

Fourth.—The President shall cause the Clerk to make a list of the resolutions or Reports on the table, which shall be considered the general orders of the day. The order of business which shall not be departed from, (except by the consent of a majority of the members present,) shall be as follows:—

1. Communications or Reports from Ward Commissioners, Inspectors and Trustees.
2. Reports of Standing Committees.
3. Reports of Special Committees.
4. Communications or Reports from the County Superintendant.
5. Miscellaneous Communications.
6. Motions and Resolutions.
7. Unfinished business.
8. Special orders of the day.
9. General orders of the day.

Fifth.—Motions to refer, to lay on the table, to adjourn, and for the previous question, shall always be in order, and shall preclude all amendments to the main question. Motions to lay on the table, to adjourn, and for the previous question, shall be taken and decided without debate. A vote of the Board ordering the previous question shall be taken by yeas and nays, and shall preclude further debate, but shall not cut off pending amendments, but each pending amendment shall be decided in order, and by yeas and nays if required.

Sixth.—No member shall absent himself from the meeting without permission from the President.

Seventh.—When the Clerk is not present, a member of the Board shall be appointed to perform his duties at the meeting.

Eighth.—The President shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Board.

Ninth.—Every member previous to his speaking, shall rise from his seat and address himself to the President.

Tenth.—When two or more members rise at one time, the President shall designate which is entitled to the floor.

Eleventh.—No member shall speak more than twice on the same question, without leave of the Board, nor more than once, until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

Twelfth.—All resolutions shall be presented in writing; when so presented they shall be read, and shall not be debated or voted upon until seconded.

Thirteenth.—Every member who shall be present when a question is put, shall vote for or against the same, unless excused by the Board.

Fourteenth.—The ayes and noes upon any question shall be called and entered upon the minutes at the request of any member.

Fifteenth.—A member called to order shall immediately sit down, and the Board, if appealed to, shall decide the case.

Sixteenth.—All Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered by the Board. Committees appointed to report on any subject referred to them by the Board shall report a statement of facts, and also their opinion thereon, in writing; and no report shall be received as the Report of the Committee, unless the same be signed by a majority of its members.

Seventeenth.—These rules and regulations shall not be altered, except upon notice of the proposed alterations, given at one meeting previous to action thereon.

NEW YORK SCHOOL LAWS.

AN ACT

To extend to the City and County of New York the provisions of the general act in relation to Common Schools, passed April 11, 1842, as amended by the Act passed April 18, 1843.

The people of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 1. There shall be elected in each of the wards of the City and County of New York, two Commissioners, two Inspectors, and five Trustees of Common Schools, who shall be elected by ballot, at a special election, to be held on the first Monday of June, 1843, by persons qualified to vote for Charter officers, and to be conducted in the same manner, by the same Inspectors, the same ward districts, and subject to the same laws, rules and regulations as now govern the charter elections in said city. The Commissioners, Inspectors and Trustees so elected, shall hold their offices for the following terms, viz: one Commissioner and one Inspector in each ward for one year: one Commissioner and one inspector in each ward for two years; and the five Trustees in each ward for the several periods of one, two, three, four and five years. The term of service of each Commissioner, Inspector, and Trustee, to be determined by drawing lots at the time when they shall severally be inducted into their offices. On the first Monday in June, in each following year, there shall be elected in the same manner, one Commissioner and one Inspector in each ward, whose term of service shall be two years, and one Trustee in each ward, whose term of service shall be five years.

The Commissioners of Common Schools so elected, shall constitute a Board of Education for the City and County of New York, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum. They shall elect one of their number President of said Board, who shall preside at the meetings thereof, which shall be held at least as often as once in three months, and they may appoint a clerk, whose compensation shall be fixed and paid by the Supervisors of said City and County. The Commissioners so elected in each ward shall be Commissioners of Schools thereof, with the like powers and duties of Commissioners of Common Schools in the several towns in this state, except as hereinafter provided. The said Inspectors of Common Schools so elected in the several wards shall have the like powers, and be subject to the same duties with the Inspectors of Common Schools of the several towns of this state, except as hereinafter provided. The Trustees of Common Schools so elected in their respective wards, shall be the Trustees of the School Districts which may be formed and organized therein, with the like powers and duties as the Trustees of School Districts in the several towns in this state, except as hereinafter provided.

§ 2. All such provisions of the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth articles of Title two, Chapter fifteen, Part first of the Revised Statutes, and of the several Acts amending, and in addition to and relating to the same, not inconsistent with the provisions in this Act contained, shall be, and the same are, hereby declared applicable to the City and County of New York.

§ 3. For all the purposes of this Act, each of the several wards into which the said City and County of New York now is or may be hereafter divided, shall be considered as a separate town, and liable to all the duties imposed, and entitled to all the powers, privileges, immunities and advantages granted by the said third, fourth, fifth and sixth Articles of Title two, chapter fifteen, Part first, of the Revised Statutes, to the several towns in this State, so far as the same are consistent with this Act.

§ 4. The forty-fourth section of the Act entitled "An Act to amend the second Title of the fifteenth chapter of the first part of the Revised Statutes, relating to Common Schools," passed May 26, 1841, is hereby repealed; and all the other sections of the said Act, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby declared applicable to the City and County of New York.

§ 5. No compensation shall be allowed to the Commissioners, Inspectors, or Trustees of Common Schools for any services performed by them, but the Commissioners and Inspectors shall receive their actual and reasonable expenses while attending to the duties of their office, to be audited and allowed by the Supervisors of the said City and County.

§ 6. The said Commissioners of Common Schools of each ward are hereby authorized to appoint a Clerk, whose compensation shall be settled and paid by the Board of Supervisors.

§ 7. Whenever the Trustees elected in any ward shall certify in writing to the Commissioners and Inspectors of Common Schools thereof, that it is necessary to organize one or more Schools in said ward, in addition to the Schools mentioned in the thirteenth section of this Act, it shall be the duty of said Commissioners and Inspectors to meet together and examine into the facts and circumstances of the case; and if they shall be satisfied of such necessity, they shall certify the same under their hands to the said Board of Education, and shall then proceed to organize one or more School Districts therein, and shall procure a school house and all things necessary to organize a school in such district, the expense of which shall be levied and raised pursuant to the provisions of section nine of this Act; and the title to all lands purchased, by virtue of this Act, with the buildings thereon, shall be vested in the City and County of New York.

§ 8. Whenever the Clerk of the city and county shall receive notice from the Superintendent of Common Schools, of the amount of moneys apportioned to the city and county of New York, for the support and encouragement of Common Schools therein, he shall immediately lay the same before the Board of Supervisors of the city and county; and the Chamberlain of the city and county of New York shall apply for and receive the school moneys apportioned to the said city and county as soon as the same becomes payable.

§ 9. The said Board of Supervisors shall annually raise and collect by tax upon the inhabitants of said city and county, a sum of money equal to the sum specified in such notice, at the same time and in the same manner as the contingent charges of the said city and county are levied and collected; also a sum of money equal to one-twentieth of one per cent. of the value of the real and personal property in the said city liable to be assessed therein, to be applied exclusively to the support of Common Schools in said city; and shall also raise and collect such further sum as may be necessary for the erecting, purchase or leasing of school houses and procuring the sites therefor, and the fitting up thereof, to be raised, levied and collected in like manner, and which shall be in lieu of all taxes and assessments to the support of Common Schools for said city and county. And the said Board of Supervisors are authorised to raise by loan, in anticipation of the taxes, when necessary, the moneys so to be raised, levied and collected as aforesaid.

§ 10. The said Board of Supervisors shall, on or before the first day of May in every year, direct that a sum of money equal to the amount last received by the Chamberlain of said city and county from the Common School fund, be deposited by him, together with the sum so received from the School fund, and all other moneys which may be raised for the support and benefit of Common Schools as aforesaid, including the erecting, purchase or leasing of school houses, and procuring the sites therefor, in one of the incorporated banks in the said city, such bank to be designated by the said Board of Supervisors, to the credit of the Commissioners of Common Schools in each of the said several wards, in the proportions to which they shall respectively be entitled, and subject only to the drafts of the said Commissioners respectively, who shall appropriate the same to the several District Schools and other schools mentioned in the thirteenth section of this Act, and shall pay the amount apportioned to the several schools enumerated in the said thirteenth section, to the Treasurer of the societies or schools entitled thereto, or to some person duly authorised by the Trustees of such societies or schools to receive the same.

§ 11. So much of the seventh article of title second, chapter fifteen, part first of the Revised Statutes, and the several Acts amending and in addition to, and relating to the said article, as is specially applicable to the city and county of New York, and all other Acts, and all provisions therein, providing for or directing, or concerning the disbursing or appropriation of the funds created for or applicable to Common School education in the city and county of New York, and all and every provision for raising any fund, or for the imposition of any tax therefor, so far as the same are inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed.

§ 12. All children between the ages of four and sixteen, residing in said city and county, shall be entitled to attend any of the Common Schools therein; and the parents, guardians, or other persons having the custody or care of such children, shall not be liable to any tax, assessment or imposition for the tuition of any such children, other than is hereinbefore provided.

§ 13. The schools of the Public School Society, the New York Orphan Asylum School, the Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum School, the schools of the two Half Orphan Asylums, the school of the Mechanics' Society, the Harlem School, the Yorkville Public School, the Manhattanville Free School, the Hamilton Free School, the Institution for the Blind, the school of the Leake and Watts' Orphan House, the school connected with the Alms-House of the said city, and the school of the Association for the benefit of Colored Orphans, shall be subject to the general jurisdiction of the said Commissioners of the respective wards in which any of the said schools are now or may hereafter be located, subject to the direction of the Board of Education, but under the immediate government and management of their respective Trustees, Managers and Directors, in the same manner and to the same extent as herein provided, in respect to the District Schools herein first before mentioned, in said city and county, and so far as relates to the distribution of the Common School moneys, each of the said schools shall be District Schools of the said city; and the Trustees of the Public School Society may appropriate all moneys received by them by virtue of this Act, to any of the purposes of Common School instruction, including the support of Normal Schools, which they were authorised by law to do before the passage of this Act; provided always, that the fee of all real estate purchased under this Act shall vest in the city and county of New York.

§ 14. No School above mentioned, or which shall be organized under this Act, in which any religious sectarian doctrine or tenet shall be taught, inculcated or practised, shall receive any portion of the School moneys to be distributed by this Act, as hereinafter provided; and it shall be the duty of the Trustees, Inspectors and Commissioners of Schools in each ward, and of the Deputy Superintendent of Schools, from time to time, and as frequently as need be, to examine and ascertain, and report to the said Board of Education, whether any religious sectarian doctrine or tenet shall have been taught, inculcated, or practised in any of the Schools in their respective wards; and it shall be the duty of the Commissioners of Schools in the several wards to transmit to the Board of Education, all reports made to them by the Trustees and Inspectors of their respective wards. The Board of Education, and any number thereof, may at any time visit and examine any School subject to the provisions of this Act, and individual Commissioners shall report to the Board the result of their examinations.

§ 15. It shall be the duty of the said Board of Education to apply for the use of the several districts and schools such moneys as shall be raised to erect, purchase or lease school houses, or to procure the sites therefor, and the fitting up thereof, as above provided, and also to apportion among the several schools and districts provided for by this Act, the residue of the school moneys raised by virtue of the ninth section of this Act, and shall file with the Chamberlain of said city and county, on or before the fifteenth day of April, in each year, a copy of such apportionment, stating the amount thereof to be paid to the Commissioners of each ward, which apportionment shall be made among the several schools and districts provided for by this Act, according to the average number of children over four years and under sixteen years of age, who shall have actually attended such school, without charge, the preceding year; which average shall be ascertained by adding together the number of such children present at each morning and afternoon session, of not less than three hours, and dividing the same by four hundred and eighty. But no such school shall be entitled to a portion of such moneys in which any religious sectarian doctrines or tenets shall have been taught, inculcated or practised, or in which any book or books containing any sectarian compositions shall be used in the course of instruction, or which shall refuse to permit the visits and examinations provided for in this Act, or that has not been kept open at least nine months in the year, unless the school shall have been organized less than nine months, or interrupted by some unavoidable contingency, in which case an equitable apportionment shall be made to it, proportioned to the time it shall have been kept open.

§ 16. The Commissioners of Schools of the respective wards, when they have received from the Chamberlain of said city and county, the money apportioned to the several Schools and districts in their several wards, shall apply the same to the use of the schools and districts in their several wards, according to the apportionment thereof so made by the said Board of Education.

§ 17. The said Commissioners of each ward shall, within fifteen days after their election, execute and deliver to the Supervisors aforesaid, a bond with which such sureties as said Supervisors shall approve, in the penalty of double the amount of public money appropriated to the use of the Common Schools of their respective wards, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their office, and the proper application of all moneys coming in their hands for Common School purposes. Such bond shall be filed by the said Supervisors in the office of the County Clerk.

§ 18. Should any money apportioned by the Board of Education to any of the Schools of the city and county remain unexpended for one year after such apportionment, by reason of the Trustees or societies having charge of such schools neglecting or refusing to receive the same, such money shall be returned to the Chamberlain of the city and county, and reported to the Board of Supervisors.

§ 19. The Board of Education shall annually, between the first day of July and the first day of August, in each year, make and transmit to the Clerk of the city and county, a report in writing, bearing date on the first day of July, in the year of its transmission, stating,

1. The whole number of schools within their jurisdiction, specially designating the schools for colored children.

2. The Schools or Societies from which reports shall have been made to the Board of Education within the time limited for that purpose.

3. The length of time each school shall have been kept open.

4. The amount of Public Money apportioned or appropriated to each school or society.

5. The number of children taught in each school.

6. The whole amount of money received by the Commissioners for the purposes of Common School education during the year ending at the date of their report, distinguishing the amount received from the general fund of the state and from any other and what source.

7. The manner in which such moneys shall have been expended, and whether any and what part remains unexpended, and for what cause.

8. With such other information as the Superintendent of Common Schools may, from time to time, require in relation to Common School education in the city and county of New York.

§ 20. Should the Board of Education neglect to make such annual report within the limited period, the share of school moneys apportioned to the city and county of New York may, in the discretion of the Superintendent of Common Schools, be withheld until a suitable report shall have been rendered.

§ 21. The Commissioners of each ward shall keep a just and true account of all such moneys received and expended by them, and on or before the first Monday of April, in each year, they shall render to the Board of Education a just and true account in writing, of all school moneys by them respectively received before the time of rendering such account, and the manner in which the same shall have been expended by them; and the account so rendered shall be filed and recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Board of Education.

§ 22. If, on rendering such account, any balance shall be found remaining in the hands of the Commissioners, or any of them, the said balance shall be paid over by him or them to the Commissioners of the ward for the ensuing year.

§ 23. Any Commissioner neglecting or refusing to render such account, or to pay over such balance, if any there be, shall, for each offence, forfeit and pay for the benefit of Common Schools in the city and county of New York, the sum of one hundred dollars, to be sued for and collected by the Board of Supervisors, who shall prosecute without delay for the recovery of such forfeiture, together with the unpaid balance; and in case of the death of such Commissioner, suit may be brought against his representatives, and all moneys recovered, after deducting expenses, shall be placed at the disposal of the Board of Education.

§ 24. This Act shall take effect immediately.

AN ACT

More effectually to provide for Common School Education in the City aad County of New York.

Passed May 7, 1844, by a two-third vote.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 1. There shall continue to be two Commissioners, two Inspectors, and five Trustees in each of the Wards of the City and County of New York, and the Commissioners, Inspectors and Trustees elected on the first Monday of June, eighteen hundred and forty-three, shall hold their offices respectively for the periods which were determined by drawing lots at the time they were severally inducted into their offices. On the first Monday of June, eighteen hundred and forty-four, and on each following year there shall be elected in each of the said wards, one Commissioner and one Inspector, whose term of service shall be two years, and one Trustee whose term of service shall be five years. The election so to be held shall be subject to the same laws, rules and regulations in all respects as now govern the charter elections in said city.

§ 2. The Commissioners of Common Schools so elected shall constitute a Board of Education for the city and county of New York, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum; they shall elect one of their number President of said Board who shall preside at the meetings thereof, which shall be held at least as often as once in three months, and they may appoint a Clerk, whose compensation shall be fixed and paid by the said Board of Education.

§ 3. All schools organized under this Act, or which shall have been organized under the Act passed April 11, 1842, and the amended Act passed April 18, 1843, shall be designated Ward Schools, and shall be numbered consecutively according to the time of their organization. The said schools shall be subject to the Board of Education, and to the Commissioners, Inspectors and Trustees of the respective wards in the manner and to the extent hereinafter provided.

§ 4. Whenever the Clerk of the city and county shall receive notice from the Superintendent of Common Schools, of the amount of moneys apportioned to the city and county of New York, for the support and encouragement of Common Schools therein, he shall immediately lay the same before the Board of Supervisors of the city and county; and the Chamberlain of the city and county of New York shall apply for and receive the school monies apportioned to the said city and county, as soon as the same becomes payable, and place the same to the credit of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the city of New York, for the benefit of the Common Schools.

§ 5. The said Board of Supervisors shall annually raise and collect by tax upon the inhabitants of said city and county, a sum of money equal to the sum specified in such notice, at the same time and in the same manner as the contingent charges of the said city and county are levied and collected: also a sum of money equal to one-twentieth of one per cent. of the value of the real and personal property in the said city, liable to be assessed thereon, to be applied exclusively to the purposes of Common schools in the said city; and shall also raise and collect such further sum as may be necessary for the erecting, purchase or leasing of school houses, and procuring the sites therefor, and the fitting up thereof, to be raised, levied, and collected in like manner, and which shall be in lieu of all taxes and assessments to the support of Common Schools for said city and county. And the Common Council of the city and county of New York are authorised and directed to raise by loan, in anticipation of the taxes, when necessary, the moneys so to be raised, levied, and collected as aforesaid.

§ 6. The said Common Council shall, on application to the Board of Education, and at such monthly or quarterly periods subsequent to the first day of May in every year, as they may determine, direct that a sum or sums of money equal in the aggregate to the amount last received by the Chamberlain of said city and county from the Common School Fund, together with the sum so received from the School Fund, and also one-twentieth of one per cent. as provided in the preceding section, be deposited by him in one of the incorporated banks in the said city, (such bank to be designated by the said Common Council,) to the credit of the Commissioners of Common Schools in each of the said several wards, and of the societies and schools enumerated in the eleventh section of this Act, in the proportion to which they shall respectively be entitled, and subject only to the drafts of the said Commissioners respectively, or of the Treasurer of the societies or schools entitled thereto, or to some person duly authorised by the Trustees of such societies or schools to receive the same. The said drafts to be countersigned as hereinafter provided, by the President and Clerk of the Board of Education.

§ 7. The balance of the funds to be raised pursuant to section five of this Act, for the erection, purchase, or leasing of school houses and procuring the sites therefor, and fitting up thereof, shall, from time to time, as such funds are provided by the Board of Supervisors, or by the Common Council aforesaid, be deposited with the Chamberlain of the city and county of New Yord, subject to the disposal of the Board of Education, by appropriation, for the establishment and organization of schools as provided in the eighth section of this Act; but no portion of the said fund shall be drawn without a special appropriation by the said Board of Education; and all drafts upon said funds shall be made by the President of the Board, countersigned by the Clerk, and made payable to the order of the persons to whom the same shall be paid.

§ 8. Whenever the Commissioners, Inspectors, and Trustees elected in any ward, or a majority of them, provided such majority shall include at least one Commissioner and one Inspector, shall certify in writing to the Board of Education of the city and county of New York, that it is necessary to organize one or more additional schools in said ward, with the facts and circumstances showing such necessity; it shall be the duty of the said Board of Education, and they are hereby directed to proceed, without delay, to investigate the subject and to determine upon the necessity and expediency of establishing such school or schools, in such ward or wards, applying for the same. But should the applicants for the establishment of such schools deem themselves aggrieved by such decision, the matter shall be referred to the decision of the Superintendent of Common Schools, who shall decide the propriety or impropriety of the establishment of such school, and his decision shall be binding on the party making such application, for the term of one year thereafter.

§ 9. Upon a decision favorable to the establishment of a school or schools in any of the wards of the said city, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners and Inspectors of such ward to proceed to organize one or more schools as the case may be, and to procure a school house by hiring the same, or by purchasing a site and erecting a building thereon, which said building and the fitting up thereof, or the fitting up of any hired building shall be done by contract, to be advertised for the period of at least two weeks previous to deciding upon estimates thereon, unless such fitting up shall not exceed the sum of two hundred dollars; and the said Commissioners and Inspectors shall also furnish the books and stationery, and other essentials necessary to organize such school, which shall as far as practicable be done by contract; and the expense of establishing and organizing any school as above mentioned, shall be levied and raised pursuant to section five of this Act; and the title to all lands purchased by virtue of this Act, with the buildings thereon, shall be vested in the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the city and county of New York.

§ 10. The Board of Education may apply to the Board of Supervisors, or to the said Common Council, for such sums as they shall require by virtue of the ninth section of this Act, to hire, purchase sites, and erect buildings, or to fit up and properly organize the same, and said Board of Supervisors, or the Common Council aforesaid, shall raise and deposit the same as provided by section five and section seventh of this Act.

§ 11. The Schools of the Public School Society, the New York Orphan Asylum School, the Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum School, the Schools of the two Half Orphan Asylums, the School of the Mechanics' Society, the Harlem School, the Yorkville Public School, the Manhattanville Free School, the Hamilton Free School, the Institution for the Blind, the School of the Leake and Watts Orphan House, the School connected with the Alms House of the said city, and the School of the Association for the benefit of Colored Orphans, shall be subject to the general supervision of the Board of Education, but under the immediate government and management of their respective Trustees, Managers and Directors; and said schools shall participate in the apportionment of the school moneys in the same manner and to the same extent as herein provided in respect to such schools as may be organized under this Act, or which shall have been organized under the Act passed April 11, 1842, or the amended Act, passed April 18, 1843, and including the support of Normal Schools of the Public School Society for the education of teachers employed or to be employed in any of the schools subject to the provisions of this Act. Titles to all school property, real or personal, hereafter purchased from all moneys derived from the distribution of the school fund or raised by taxation in the city of New York, shall be vested in the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of said city.

§ 12. It shall be the duty of the Board of Education to apportion all the school moneys except so much as shall have been raised for the purpose of establishing and organizing new schools, to each of the several schools provided for by this Act, and the Acts mentioned in the preceding section, according to the number of children over four and under sixteen years of age, who shall have actually attended such school without charge the preceding year; and the average shall be ascertained by adding together the number of such children present at each morning and evening session of not less than three hours, and dividing the sum by four hundred and eighty. And if any school shall have been organized since the last annual apportionment, the average shall be ascertained by dividing the said sum by a number corresponding to the actual number of morning and evening sessions of not less than three hours each, held since the organization of such school:

and if any of the said newly organized schools, by reason of peculiar circumstances, shall be equitably entitled to a larger sum than they will receive under an apportionment so made, then the said Board of Education shall be authorised, and they are hereby required, to make for such schools such further allowance out of the said school moneys as by the said Board of Education shall be deemed just and proper. But no school shall be entitled to a portion of the school moneys in which the religious sectarian doctrine or tenet of any particular Christian, or other religious sect shall be taught, inculcated or practised, or in which any book or books, containing compositions favorable or prejudicial to the particular doctrine or tenets of any Christian sect, or which shall teach the doctrine or tenets of any other religious sect, or which shall refuse or* permit the visits and examinations provided for in this Act. If the school moneys apportioned agreeably to this section shall exceed the necessary and legal expenses of either of the schools or societies provided for in this Act, the Board of Education shall authorise the payment only of such necessary and legal expenses;

any balance remaining in deposit at the end of the year, shall be paid by the Board of Education into the City Treasury, and any deficiency to meet the necessary legal expenses of either of the said schools or societies, shall be supplied by the Common Council of the said city, in anticipation of the annual tax for the support of Common Schools, as provided by section five of this Act. The Board of Education shall, in all cases, certify to the Common Council, the cause of such deficiency, aud that the same was unavoidable; and unless such certificate shall be made, the said Common Council may refuse to raise the sum required to meet such deficiency. But nothing herein contained shall authorise the Board of Education to exclude t'.e holy scriptures without note or comment, or any selections therefrom, from any of the schools provided for by this Act; but it shall not be competent for the said Board of Education to decide what version, if any, of the holy scriptures without note or comment, shall be used in any of the said schools; provided that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to violate the rights of conscience as secured by the Constitution of this state and the United States.

§ 13. It shall be the duty of the Commissioners, Inspectors and Trustees in each ward, from time to time, and as frequently as need be, to examine, ascertain and report to the Board of Education whether the provisions in the preceding section in relation to the teaching of sectarian doctrines, or the use of sectarian books shall have been violated; and it shall be the duty of the Commissioners of Schools in the several wards, to transmit to the Board of Education, all reports made to them by the Trustees and Inspectors of their repective wards. The Board of Education and any member thereof, may at any time visit and examine any school which shall be subject to the provisions of this Act, and individual Commissioners may report to the Board the result of their examinations.

§ 14. The Board of Education shall file with the Chamberlain of the said city and county, on or before the first Monday of April, in each year, a copy of their apportionment, stating the amount thereof to be paid to the Commissioners of each ward, and to the Trustees, Managers or Directors of the several schools enumerated in the eleventh section of this Act. And the Chamberlain of the said city is authorised to pay the several sums which shall be so apportioned, upon the drafts of either of the Commissioners, or of the Trustees, or other persons duly authorised to receive the same; but no such drafts shall be paid unless countersigned by the President and Clerk for the time being, of the Board of Education.

§ 15. The Board of Education shall, on or before the first Monday of July, in each year, report to the Board of Supervisors an estimate of the probable amount which will be required to be raised during the year for the purpose of meeting the current annual expenses of common school instruction, and whether more or less than the one-twentieth of one per cent. in addition to an equal amount with the state quota will be necessary; and it shall be the duty of the Board of Supervisors, or the Common Council, on their application, to raise the necessary amount, pursuant to the provisions of section five of this Act; and the said Board of Education are authorised to retain from the moneys which shall be so raised, the sum of five hundred dollars, for the purpose of defraying their necessary incidental expenses, and such further sum as may be required for the payment of the salary of their Clerk.

§ 16. The Clerk of the Board of Education, in addition to his duties as Secretary of said Board, shall also perform such clerical duty as the Commissioners of the several wards may from time to time require of him.

§ 17. All expenses incurred for the support of Common Schools in the respective wards, shall be certified by the Trustees and Inspectors of Common Schools in said ward, or a majority of them, and delivered to the Commissioners of said ward; and it shall be the duty of said Commissioners to audit and examine the same, and upon said Commissioners being satisfied of their correctness, to pay the same out of the moneys which they shall have drawn, or which shall be deposited to their credit by the Chamberlain of the city and county, as herein provided; all bills so audited and paid, shall be filed with the Board of Education.

§ 18. In making the apportionment among the several schools, no share shall be allotted to any school from which no sufficient annual report shall have been received for the year ending on the last day of January, immediately preceding the apportionment.

§ 19. Whenever an apportionment of the public money shall not be made to any school, in consequence of any accidental omission to make any report required by law, or to comply with any other provisions of law, or any regulation, the Board of Education may direct an apportionment to be made to such school according to the equitable circumstances of the case, to be paid out of the public money on hand; or if the same shall have been distributed, out of the public money to be received in a succeeding year.

§ 20. Should any money, apportioned by the Board of Education to any of the schools of the city and county, remain unexpended for one year after such apportionment, by reason of the Trustees or Societies having charge of such schools neglecting or refusing to receive the same, such money shall be returned to the Chamberlain of the city and county, and reported to the Board of Supervisors.

§ 21. The Board of Education shall annually, between the first day of May and the first day of June, in each year, make and transmit to the Clerk of the city and county, a report in writing, bearing date on the first day of May, in the year of its transmission, stating,

1. The whole number of schools within their jurisdiction, specially designating the schools for colored children.

2. The Schools or Societies from which reports shall have been made to the Board of Education within the time limited for that purpose.

3. The length of time each school shall have been kept open.

4. The amount of Public Money apportioned or appropriated to each school or society.

5. The number of children taught in each school.

6. The whole amount of money received by the Commissioners or by the societies and schools enumerated in the eleventh section for the purposes of Common School education during the year ending at the date of the report, distinguisht ing the amount received from the general fund of the state and from any other and what source.

7. The manner in which such moneys shall have been expended, and whether any and what part remains unexpended, and for what cause.

8. With such other information as the Superintendent of Common Schools may, from time to time, require in relation to Common School education in the city and county of New York.

§ 22. Should the Board of Education neglect to make such annual report within the limited period, the share of school moneys apportioned to the city and county of New York may, in the discretion of the Superintendent of Common Schools, be withheld until a suitable report shall have been rendered.

§ 23. The Commissioners of each ward shall keep a just and true account of all school moneys received and expended by them, or carried to ther credit, and on or before the first Monday of June, in each year, they shall render to the Board of Education a just and true account in writing, of all school moneys by them respectively received before the time of rendering such account, and the manner in which the same shall have been expended by them; and the account so rendered shall be filed and recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Board of Education.

§ 24. If, on rendering such account, any balance shall be found remaining in the hands of the Commissioners, or any of them, or standing to their credit, the said balance shall be paid over or carried to the credit of the Commissioners of the ward for the ensuing year.

§ 25. The Board of Education shall have the powers and privileges of a corporation so far as to enable them to take and hold any property transferred to them for the purposes of Common School education in the city and county of New York.

§ 26. No compensation shall be allowed to the Commissioners, Inspectors, or Trustees of Common Schools, for any services performed by them, but the Commissioners and Inspectors shall receive their actual and reasonable expenses while attending to the duties of their office, to be audited and allowed by the Supervisors of said city and county.

§ 27. The said Commissioners of each ward shall, within thirty days after their election, execute and deliver to the Supervisors aforesaid, a bond, with such surety or sureties, as said Supervisors shall approve, in the penalty of double the amount of public money appropriated to the use of the Common Schools of their respective wards, the preceding year, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their office, and the proper application of all moneys coming into their hands for Common School purposes; such bond shall be filed by the said Supervisors in the office of the County Clerk.

§ 28. The Commissioners of Common Schools in each ward, together with the Inspectors elected in their ward, shall be the Inspectors of Common Schools of their ward.

§ 29. It shall be the duty of the Inspectors of Common Schools to examine into the qualifications of candidates for teaching Common Schools in their respective wards, and it shall be necessary for at least two Inspectors to certify to the qualifications of any teacher, in respect to moral character, learning and ability, before he or she can be employed in any school that may be subject to the provisions of this Act.

§ 30. Each candidate, whose qualifications are approved, shall be entitled to receive a certificate from the Inspectors, signed by them, in such form as shall be prescribed by the Superintendent of Common Schools.

§ 31. The Inspectors may annul any such certificate given by them, or their predecessors in office, when they shall think proper; giving at least ten days' previous notice in writing to the Teacher holding it, and to the Trustees of the ward in which such teacher may be employed, of their intention to annul the same; but the annulling of a certificate shall not disqualify the teacher to whom it may have been given, until a note thereof in writing, containing the name of the teacher and the time when the certificate was annulled, shall have been made by the Inspectors, filed in the office of the Clerk, and approved by the Board of Education.

§ 32. It shall be the duty of the Inspectors and Trustees of each ward, to see that all schools in their respective wards, under their immediate management, are visited at least once in each month, to examine into the state and condition, the progress of the scholars in learning, the condition of the books and other property belonging to the schools, and all other particulars relative to their order and management; and they may give their advice and direction to the teachers as to the government thereof, and the course of studies to be pursued therein; and also report the results of their visits and examinations to the Board of Education.

§ 33. Each of the Inspectors, by agreement with, or direction of, the other Inspectors, may be assigned to a certain number of schools, which it shall be his special duty to visit and inspect.

§ 34. It shall be the duty of the Trustees of each ward, and they shall have power,

To have the safe keeping of all the property belonging to the schools organized under this Act, in their respective wards;

To contract with and employ all the teachers in the said schools; and

To pay the wages of such teachers, and other school expenses, by drafts on the Commissioners of their respective wards.

§ 35. It shall be the duty of the Trustees of each ward to procure for the use of each school in their ward, organized under this Act, two bound blank books, from time to time, as shall be necessary, in one of which the accounts of all moneys received and paid by the Trustees, and a statement of all moveable property belonging to each school, shall be entered at large and signed by such Trustees. In the other of said books, the teachers shall enter the names of the scholars attending school, and the number of days they shall have respectively attended, and also the days on which such school shall have been visited by the Deputy Superintendent and the Ward Inspectors; which entries shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of the principal teacher in each school. The said books shall be preserved by the Trustees, as the property of the schools, and shall be delivered to their successors.

§ 36. The Trustees of each ward and the Trustees or managers of the various schools and societies enumerated in the eleventh section of this Act, shall, on or before the fifteenth day of February in every year, make and transmit a report in writing to the Board of Education. Every such report made by the Trustees of a ward shall be signed and certified by a majority of the Trustees making it, and those made by the Trustees or managers of the societies and schools aforesaid, shall be signed by the presiding officer and Secretary, which reports shall state,

1. The whole number of schools within their jurisdiction, specially designating the schools for colored children.

2. The length of time each school shall have been kept open.

3. The whole number of scholars over four and under sixteen years of age, which shall have been taught, free of expense to such scholars, in their schools during the year preceding the first day of February; which number shall be ascertained by adding to the number of children on register at the commencement of each year, the number admitted during that year, which shall be considered the total for that year.

4. The average number that has actually attended such schools during the year, to be ascertained by the teachers keeping an exact account of the number of scholars present every school time or half day; which being added together and divided by four hundred and eighty, or if less than a year, by the number of school sessions, shall be considered the average of attending scholars, which average shall be sworn or affirmed to by the teachers.

5. The amount of moneys received during the last year from the Commissioners of school money, or from the Chamberlain of the city, and the purposes for, and the manner in which the same shall have been expended.

6. A particular account of the state of the schools and of the property and affairs of each school under their respective care, with such other information as the Board of Education shall from time to time require.

§ 37. Every Trustee or officer of a school or society, who shall sign a false report to the Board of Education, with intent to cause the Board of Education to apportion and pay to his school or schools a larger sum than its just proportion of the school moneys of the city, shall for each offence, forfeit the sum of twenty-five dollars, and shall also be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 38. All personal property vested in the Trustees of any ward for the use of schools in such ward, or which may be hereafter transferred to such Trustees for such purpose, shall be held by them as a corporation.

§ 39. Every Trustee of a ward, on the expiration of his term of office, shall render to the remaining Trustees of that ward, a just and true account, in writing, of all moneys received by him for school purposes, and of the manner in which the same shall have been expended.

§ 40. Any balance of such moneys which shall appear from such account to remain in the hands of any Trustee, whose term of office shall have expired, shall immediately be paid to the remaining Trustees of that ward.

§ 41. Every Trustee who shall refuse or neglect to render such account, or to pay over any balance so found in his hands, shall, for each offence, forfeit the sum of fifty dollars, which sum, together with said unpaid balance, shall be sued for and collected by the Board of Supervisors, who shall prosecute without delay for the recovery of such forfeiture, together with the unpaid balance; and in case of the death of such Trustee, suit may be brought against his representatives, and all moneys recovered, after deducting expenses, shall be placed at the disposal of the Board of Education, to be appointed the ensuing year.

§ 42. All children between the ages of four and sixteen, residing in the city and county, shall be entitled to attend any of the Common Schools therein; and the parents, guardians, or other persons having the custody or care of such children, shall not be liable to any tax, assessment or imposition for the tuition of any children, other than is hereinbefore mentioned.

§ 43. In any suit which shall hereafter be commenced against Commissioners or Trustees of Common Schools, for any act performed by virtue of, or under color of their offices, or for any refusal or omission to perform any duty enjoined by law, and which might have been the subject of an appeal to the Superintendent, no costs shall be allowed to the plaintiff in cases where the court shall certify that it appeared on the trial of the cause that the defendants acted in good faith. But this provision shall not extend to suits for penalties, nor to suits or proceedings to enforce the decisions of the Superintendent.

§ 44. The Board of Supervisors of the city and county shall appoint a County Superintendent of Common Schools for such city and county. Such County Superintendent shall hold his office for two years, subject to removal by the Board of Supervisors, on complaint, for causes to be stated. A certified copy of every resolution making such appointment, shall be transmitted by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors to the Superintendent. Such County Superintendent shall have power, and it shall be his duty,

1. To visit and examine all the schools committed to his charge, as often in each year as may be practicable, having reference to the number of such schools; and at least twice in each year to notify the Inspectors of Common Schools of the ward, of the time appointed to visit the schools in such ward, and to invite such Inspectors to visit with him, the said schools, and with such Inspectors, if they or any of them will attend at such visits, or without their presence, at any time to enquire into all matters relating to the government, course of instruction, books, studies, discipline and conduct of such schools, and the condition of the school houses, and of the schools generally, and to advise and counsel with the Trustees in relation to their duties, the proper studies, discipline and conduct of the schools, the course of instruction to be pursued, and the books of elementary instruction to be used therein, and examine and ascertain and report to the Board of Education, whether any of the provisions of the Act in relation to religious sectarian teaching and books shall have been violated in any of the schools in the different wards of the city.

2. To examine persons offering themselves as candidates for teachers of Common Schools, and to grant them certificates of qualification, in such form as shall be prescribed by the Superintendent, which certificates shall be evidence of the qualifications of such teachers in every ward of the city and county.

3. By and with the consent of any two Inspectors of any ward, to annul any certificate granted to any teacher in said ward, whenever such teacher shall be found deficient.

4. And generally, by all the means in his power, to promote sound education, elevate the character and qualifications of teachers, improve the means of instruction, and advance the interests of schools committed to his charge.

§ 45. Any County Snperintendent may at any time resign his office to the President of the Board of Supervisors; and in case of a vacancy in the office from any cause, the Common Council may fill the vacancy, until the next meeting of the Board of Supervisors.

§ 46. The County Superintendent shall be subject to such general rules and regulations as the Superintendent may from time to time prescribe, and appeals from his acts and decisions may be made to the Superintendent in the same manner and with the like effect, as in cases now provided by law; and he shall make annually to the Superintendent, at such times as shall be appointed by him, a report in writing, containing the whole number of schools in the city and county, distinguishing the schools from which the necessary reports have been made to the Board of Education by the Commissioners or Trustees of Common Schools, and containing a certified copy of the report of the Board of Education to the Clerk of the city and county, with such additional information as the Superintendent shall require; and for that purpose he shall have access to the reports of the Board of Education, filed with the Clerk of the city and county, and also to the reports of the Commissioners and Trustees, filed with the Clerk of the Board of Education, without charge.

§ 47. The County Superintendent shall be allowed two dollars for each day necessarily spent in the discharge of his duties; and the amount shall be audited and certified by the Board of Supervisors of the city and county. One equal moiety of said amount shall be charged upon the city and county, and shall be raised and paid in the same manner as other charges upon the city and county. The other moiety shall be paid by the Treasurer, on the warrant of the Comptroller, out of the annual surplus now appropriated to the capital of the Common School Fund, arising from the income of the moneys deposited by the United States.

§ 48. In case of the death or resignation of any member of the Board of Education, or of any Inspector or Trustee, or of a neglect or refusal to qualify or give the prescribed security on the part of any Commissioner, Inspector, or Trustee, the vacancy so occasioned shall be filled by the Common Council until the next annual election.

§ 49. The Supervisors of the city and county of New York are hereby authorised and directed, notwithstanding the passage of this Act, to audit and allow accounts which may be presented to them for the completion of contracts that may have been already made under the provisions of the Acts hereby amended, and to raise and collect according to law, the sum necessary for that purpose.

§ 50. The Act of April 11, 1842, and the amended Act of April 18, 1843, in relation to Common Schools in the city aud county of New York, and all other Acts specially applicable to Public or Common Schools in the city and county of New York, as far as the same are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed.

§ 51. This Act shall take effect immediately.

AN ACT

Authorising the Board of Education of the City and County of New York, to establish a Free Academy in said city.

Passed May 7, 1847, "three-fifths being present.

The people of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 1. The Board of Education of the city and county of New York shall have power to establish a Free Academy in the city of New York, whenever the said Board of Education at any regular meeting thereof, by a majority of all the members thereof, shall, by resolution, declare it expedient to do so, for the purpose of extending the benefits of education gratuitously, to persons who have been pupils in the Common Schools of the said city and county of New York.

§ 2. Upon a decision being made by the said Board of Education as provided in the first section of this Act, determining it expedient to establish in the city of New York such Free Academy, it shall be lawful for the said Board of Education, at any regular meeting thereof, to proceed in such manner as said Board of Education shall by resolution prescribe, to establish such Free Academy; and unless a place deemed by said Board to be a suitable site therefor, be appropriated by the Common Council of the said city and county to that purpose, to purchase a site therefor, and erect, finish, and fit up a suitable building or buildings; the erecting, finishing, fitting up of which said building or buildings shall be done by contract or contracts to be made with the said Board of Education. The said Board of Education shall give at least twenty days' notice in three public newspapers published in the said city, that the said Board will, on or before a day to be specified in said notice, receive sealed proposals for erecting, finishing, and fitting up the building or buildings provided for in this section, in conformity with plans and specifications to be prepared by the said Board prior to publishing the said notice; at the expiration of which time the said Board shall open said proposals, and enter into a contract or contracts with such person or persons as shall offer or bid to erect, finish and fit up said building or buildings at the least sum or sums; and shall give security in a bond to the said Board to the satisfaction of the said Board, for the faithful performance of his or their contract or contracts; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude the said Board of Education from making such contract or contracts, with any other person or persons than such lowest bidder or bidders, who will contract to erect, finish and fit up said building or buildings, at a less price than such lowest bid or bids, and give security as aforesaid for the faithful performance of such contract or contracts. The Board of Supervisors of the said city and county of New York, on the requisition of the said Board of Education, shall raise and collect by tax upon the inhabitants of said city and county, such sum or sums as shall be necessary to establish such Free Academy, purchase a site therefor, and defray the expense of erecting, finishing and fitting up a suitable building or buildings as above mentioned, and the cost of procuring the said plans and specifications, and publishing the said notice, at the same time, and in the same manner as the contingent charges of said city and county are raised and collected. The Common Council of the said city and county of New York, are authorised and directed to raise by loan, in anticipation of the raising and collecting of the same by tax as aforesaid, so much of the said sum of moneys so to be raised, levied and collected as aforesaid, as the Board of Education shall by resolution require, to enable the said Board of Education to perform any contract or contracts which said Board may make, as in this section is provided.

§ 3. The Board of Supervisors of the said city and county of New York, shall annually raise and collect by tax upon the inhabitants of said city and county, at the same time and in the same manner as the contingent charges of the said city and county are raised and collected, such sum as the said Board of Education shall by resolution declare to be necessary in addition to other means which may be appropriated to them therefor, for the maintenance and support of the said Free Academy, and to keep the said building or buildings in proper condition, and to make all needful repairs of the same. The title of all real property, with the building or buildings to be erected thereon, purchased by virtue of this Act, shall be vested in the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York; and the title to all personal property purchased by virtue of this Act for use in said Free Academy, and in the management of the same, shall be vested in the said Board of Education.

§ 4. All monies required to be raised by virtue of this Act, shall, on being raised as herein before provided, be deposited for the safe keeping thereof, in such place in the said city as may be designated by the said Common Council, to the credit of the said Board of Education, and shall be drawn out only in pursuance of a resolution or resolutions of the said Board, by drafts signed by the President, and countersigned by the Clerk of the said Board, payable to the order of the person or persons entitled to receive such monies.

§ 5. The said Free Academy shall be under the supervision, management and government of the said Board of Education. The said Board of Education shall from time to time make all needful rules and regulations, to fix the number and compensation of teachers and others to be employed therein; to prescribe the preliminary examination, and the terms and conditions on which pupils shall be received and instructed therein, and discharged therefrom; to direct the course of studies therein, and to provide in all things for the good government and management of the said Free Academy; and for the purchase of the books, apparatus, stationery, and other things necessary and expedient to enable the said Free Academy to be properly and successfully conducted, and to keep the said building or buildings properly repaired and furnished.

§ 6. The said Board of Education shall annually appoint a Standing Committee of five persons of their own number, who shall, subject to the supervision, control and approbation of the said Board, constitute an Executive Committee for the care, management and government of the said Free Academy, under the rules and regulations prescribed as aforesaid, whose duty it shall be from time to time to make full and detailed reports to the said Board of Education, and among other things to recommend the rules and regulations which they deem necessary and proper for the said Academy. The Board of Education may, at any regular meeting thereof, by a vote of a majority of all the members of the said Board, remove any or all of the members of the said Committee, and appoint another person or persons in the place of the member or members of the said Committee so removed.

§ 7. From and after the time when the said Free Academy shall be established, and the instruction and education of students therein shall have been commenced, on such facts being certified by the said Board of Education to the Regents of the University of the State of New York, the said Regents shall pay annually to the said Board of Education such rateable portion of the literature fund as by law then in force it shall be entitled to receive with the other Academies in the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth Senate districts of this State as now constituted, to be expended and applied by the said Board of Education to the support and maintenance of the said Free Academy.

§ 8. The Board of Education shall annually, on or before the first day of February in each year, make and transmit to the Clerk of the Common Council of the said city and county, and also to the Secretary of the Board of "The Regents of the University of the State of New York," a report, signed by the President and Clerk of the said Board of Education, bearing date on the first Monday of January, in the year of its transmission; which report shall state—

1. The names and ages of all the pupils instructed in such Free Academy during the preceding year, and the time that each was so instructed.

2. A particular statement of the studies pursued by each pupil at the commencement of his instruction, and of his subsequent studies until the date of his report; together with the books such student shall have studied in whole or in part; and if in part, what portion.

3. An account or estimate of the cost or value of the library, philosophical and chemical apparatus, and mathematical or other scientific instruments, belonging to such Academy.

4. The names of the Instructors employed in the Academy, and the compensation paid to each.

5. What amount of moneys the Board of Education has received during that year, for the support and maintenance of such Academy, and from what sources, specifying how much from each; and the particular manner and specific purposes for which such moneys have been expended.

6. And such other information in relation to education in said Academy, and the measures of the Board in the management thereof, as the said Common Council or the Regents of the University of the State of New York, may from time to time require.

§ 9. The said Board of Education shall have the powers and privileges of a Corporation, so far as to enable it to take and hold, sue for and recover, all personal property; and for any wrongful damage done to any and all personal property, the title whereof may be vested in it by virtue of this Act, or which may be entrusted to it, or confided to its care and management, and for all moneys deposited to its credit for the support and maintenance of the said Free Academy; and by appropriate suit or action, to enforce the performance of any contract or contracts lawfully made by it, or to recover just and lawful damages for the non-performance thereof.

§ 10. Nothing in this Act contained shall be so construed as to authorise the Regents of the University to pay to said Academy any money authorised by this Act, except for such students as by law and the rules and regulations of said Board of Regents in other Academies shall be entitled to participate in the distribution of the income of the literature fund.

§ 11. The sum to be expended by the said Board of Education for the erection of the buildings for the said Free Academy, shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars, and the sum to be annually expended for the support of the said Free Academy shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars, to be raised by tax on the real and personal property in the city and county of New York, as hereinbefore provided for.

§ 12. At the election to be held on the first Monday of June next, for the election of school officers, the question whether such Academy shall be established, according to the provisions of this Act shall be submitted to the people. Should there be a majority of votes in its favor, it shall be the duty of the Board of Education forthwith to take measures to carry the provisions of this Act into operation; and should there be a majority of votes against it, then this Act shall be void and of no effect. The form of the ballot and manner of conducting said election, and ascertaining the result, shall be prescribed by the Common Council of the said city and county of New York.

§ 1. Any Schools which have been established by the Public School Society of the city of New York, since the passage of the Act entitled "An Act more effectually to provide for Common School Education in the city of New York," passed May 7, 1844, may be continued and supported, and may be allowed to participate in the public money apportioned to said Public School Society, in the same manner as if they had been established before the passage of said Act; but the said Public School Society shall not establish any new School without the consent of the Board of Education.

§ 2. The said Public School Society have power to purchase, erect or hire other buildings in place of those now occupied by their Schools, whenever it shall become necessary for the purpose of said Schools now existing.

§ 3. This Act shall take effect immediately.

AN ACT

To incorporate the New York Society for the Promotion of Education among Colored Children.

Passed December 7, 1847, "Three-fifths being present."

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 1. Sampson White, George D. Jamieson, Daniel J. Elston, Edward F. Marshall, Alexander Crummell, James McCune Smith, Albro Lyons, Philip A. Bell, Charles B. Ray, George T. Downing, Patrick H. Reason, Samuel E. Cornish, John Peterson, Edward V. Clarke, Ulysses B. Vidal, William P. Powell, Henry Jamieson, William Innis, Thomas Van Rensselaer, Willis Hodges, Edward Felix, William J. Wilson, Robert Cromwell, Robert Brister, Peter A. Guignon, Charles L. Reason, and all other persons who are now associated with them for the purposes contemplated by this Act, or who shall hereafter become members of the Society hereby incorporated, shall be, and they are hereby constituted and declared to be a body corporate, by the name of "The New York Society for the Promotion of Education among Colored Children," with right of succession; and capable, by the name aforesaid, of suing and being sued in all Courts and places, and in and for all matters and causes whatsoever; and of purchasing and taking by gift, grant, or devise, real or personal estate; and no misnomer of the said Corporation, in any deed, will, or other instrument or mode of contract, conveyance, or transfer, shall vitiate or defeat the same, whenever the Corporation shall be sufficiently described to ascertain the intention of the parties; Provided always, that the yearly income of the real and personal estate of the said Corporation shall not at any time exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars.

§ 2. The said Corporation shall have a common seal, which they may change or alter at pleasure; and shall also have full power and authority to lease their real estate for a term not exceeding twelve years, and to dispose of their personal estate; such leasing and disposition to be made upon such terms and in such manner as they shall deem to be most advantageous for promoting the purposes of said Corporation; and whenever, by a resolution of a majority of the whole number of the Trustees of the said Society, at any regular meeting of the said Trustees duly convened, confirmed by a vote of any subsequent regular meeting, after the said resolution shall have been published at least one month in one of the public newspapers printed in the city of New York, best calculated by the extent and character of its circulation to give the requisite publicity to such resolution, it shall be declared necessary and proper to dispose of, grant, or mortgage any part of the real estate of the said Society, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the said Society, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to dispose of, grant, convey, or mortgage so much of said estate as the said resolution shall direct or permit to be disposed of, granted, conveyed, or mortgaged.

§ 3. The object and purpose of said Society shall be the promotion of education among the colored children of the city and county of New-York; and all colored children between the ages of four and sixteen, residing in the city and county of New York, shall be entitled to attend any of the schools established by the said Society; and the parents, guardians, and other persons having the custody or care of such children, shall not be liable to any pecuniary charge by the said Society for the tuition of any child: Provided, however, that in cases in which they may think it expedient to do so, it shall be lawful for the Trustees of said Society to require of pupils received into the schools under their charge, or have been hired and wholly fitted up, or wholly purchased, erected and fitted up with the proper moneys of the said Corporation exclusively, and without any aid, direct or indirect, from the public shool moneys, a moderate compensation, adapted to the ability of the parents, guardians, or other persons having the care or custody of such pupils; the income accruing from which shall be applied to the payment of teachers, the erection of school houses, and the defraying such other expenses as may be incident to the education of children; but no child shall be denied the benefits of said schools on the ground of inability to pay the same, but shall be freely received and educated by the said Corporation.

§ 4. The Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Assistants of the city of New York, shall be ex-officio members of the said Corporation; and any person residing in the city and county of New York, who contributes to the funds of the said Society the annual sum of two dollars, shall thereby become a member of said Corporation, and shall continue to be such member so long as he shall annually make such payment; and any person residing in said city and county, who contributes to the funds of said Society the sum of ten dollars, shall thereby become and continue to be a member of said Corporation for life, without making any further payment. The affairs and business of said Corporation shall be conducted and managed by twenty-one Trustees, to be chosen and elected as hereinafter directed, and who shall be persons of color, members of said Corporation, and actually residing in the city and county of New York; and the first Trustees, of said Corporation shall be George T. Downing, Robert Brister, George D. Jamieson, Daniel J. Elston, James McCune Smith, Alexander Crummell, Charles B. Ray, Albro Lyons, Philip A. Bell, Samuel E. Cornish, Edward V. Clarke, Ulysses B. Vidall, William P. Powell, Henry Jamieson, Willis Hodges, Edward Felix, Robert Cromwell, John Jackson, Peter Ray, Henry Scott, and Henry Smith, who shall hold their offices until the second Monday of May next, and who shall elect by ballot, out of their own number, a President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary, to hold their offices also until the second Monday of May next. On the second Monday of May, in every year, there shall be a general meeting of the members of said Corporation, at such convenient place in the city of New York as shall be appointed by the said Corporation, and there, by the majority of such of them as shall so meet, twenty-one of their number shall be elected by ballot to be Trustees of the said Corporation for the year ensuing; of whom one shall be designated as President, one other as Vice President, one other as Treasurer, and one other as Secretary, who shall immediately enter upon the duties of their respective offices, and hold the same, from the time of election, for one year thereafter, and until others shall be elected in their stead; and in case of any vacancy occurring in the Board of Trustees, by death, resignation, removal from the city of New York, or neglect or refusal to act, of any of the persons elected to be Trustees of said Corporation, such vacancy shall be forthwith filled by the remaining Trustees, by election by ballot, and the persons so elected to fill vacancies shall hold the offices for which they shall be so chosen, until the time of the next annual election, and until others shall be so chosen in their stead.

§ 5. The Trustees of the said Corporation shall meet on the second Monday in every month, and at such other times as they may judge proper, and two-thirds of the whole number of Trustees for the time being shall be a legal meeting, and constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; and at such meetings the said Trustees shall have power to make by-laws and rules for the government and regulation of said Corporation, and the management and disposal of its affairs and property; and to alter, amend, or repeal the same, from time to time as they may think fit; and also power to call a general meeting of the members of said Corporation, who may adjourn from time to time as they may think proper; and at the first legal meeting of the said Trustees after the annual election of Trustees in May in each year, they, or a majority of them, shall and may appoint the necessary teachers and instructors for said schools, and such other officers or servants as may be necessary, and allow and fix their compensations, and dismiss the same at their pleasure, and others appoint in their stead.

§ 6. The schools of the said corporation shall be subject to the general supervision and direction of the Board of Education for the city and county of New York, but under the immediate government and management of the said corporation; and said schools shall participate in the apportionment of the school moneys derived from the distribution of the school fund, and raised by taxation in the city of New York, to be ascertained in like manner and to the same extent as is provided respecting the schools of the Public School Society, and the other schools enumerated in the eleventh section of the Act, entitled "An Act more effectually to provide for Common School Education in the city and county of New York," passed May 7, 1844, and including the support of normal schools of the said corporation, for the education of teachers employed or to be employed in any of the schools under their charge; said apportionment to the schools of the said corporation to be made according to the provisions of said Act, passed May 7, 1844. Titles to all school property real or personal, purchased for the purposes of this Act, wholly or in part from money derived from the distribution of the school fund, or raised by taxation in the city of New York, shall be vested in the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the city of New York.

§ 7. Whenever the said Trustees or a majority of them shall, pursuant to a resolution passed at any legal meeting of said Trustees, certify in writing to the Board of Education for the city and county of New York, that it is necessary to organize one or more additional schools for the purposes contemplated by this Act, specifying the location or ward where such school or schools may be required, and the facts and circumstances showing the necessity for the organization thereof; it shall be the duty of the said Board of Education, and they are hereby directed to proceed without delay, to investigate the subject, and to determine upon the necessity and expediency of such school or schools.

§ 8. If, upon the application of the said Trustees as provided for in the last preceding section, a decision shall be made by the Board of Education favorable to the establishment of a school or schools as applied for, it shall be lawful for the Trustees of said Society to proceed to organize one or more schools as the case may be, and to procure a school house by hiring the same, or by purchasing a site and erecting a building thereon, the erection of which and the fitting up thereof, or the fitting up of any hired building, shall be done by contract, proposals for which shall be invited by public advertisement for the period of at least two weeks previous to deciding upon estimates; but if such fitting up shall not exceed the sum of two hundred dollars no advertisement for proposals therefor, shall be necessary, provided, however, that no contract of hiring or fitting up, purchasing any site or erecting any building as authorised in this section, shall be considered valid or concluded so as to warrant the payment or application of any of the public moneys in fulfilment thereof, until the same shall have been first passed upon and approved by the Board of Education, who are required hereby diligently to enquire and examine into and pass upon the same when presented to them for that purpose, and the said Trustees shall also in like manner and under like regulations, and subject to the approval of the Board of Education, as is hereinbefore provided respecting the hiring, fitting up, purchasing or erecting buildings for schools, furnish the books and stationery and other essentials necessary to organize the school or schools aforesaid, which shall, as far as practicable, be done by contract; and the expense of establishing and organizing any school as above mentioned, shall be levied and raised by the Board of Supervisors of the city and county of New York, pursuant to section five of the said Act, entitled "An Act more effectually to provide for Common School Education in the city and county of New York."

§ 9. The Schools of the Society hereby incorporated, shall be subject to the provisions of sections twelve and thirty-six of the Act, entitled "An Act more effectually to provide for Common School Education in the city and county of New York," and to all the laws and regulations in force respecting the Public or Common Schools in the city and county of New York, so far as they are or can be deemed properly applicable.

§ 10. It shall be the duty of the Trustees of the Society hereby incorporated, to report annually to the general meeting of the members of the said Corporation, in May, in each year, and also to the Board of Education of said city, a particular account of the state of the school or schools under their care, and of the moneys received and expended by them during the year, so as to exhibit a full and perfect statement of the property, funds and affairs of the said corporation.

§ 11. This Act shall take effect immediately.

AN ACT

To amend an act entitled "An act more effectually to provide for common school education in the city and county of New York, passed May 7, 1844."

Passed April 11, 1849, "three-fifths being present.

The people of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 1. On the requisition of the Board of Education of the city and county of New York, by resolution certified by the president and clerk of said Board to have been duly passed, the comptroller of the city of New York shall deposit with the chamberlain of said city, to the credit of the Board of Education, such sum as the said resolution shall specify to be necessary to make payments required to be made pursuant to the provisions of the act hereby amended and of the acts amending the same, and of the act entitled "An act authorising the Board of Education of the city and county of New York to establish a free academy in said city," passed May 7, 1847, and of the act entitled "An act to authorise the Board of Education of the city of New York to establish evening schools for the education of apprentices and others," passed March 25, 1848, and of the act entitled "An act to incorporate the New York society for the promotion of education among colored children," passed December 7, 1847, and of the act entitled "An act in relation to the public school society of the city of New York," passed March 4, 1848. But no such requisition shall be made oftener than once in each month.

§ 2. No requisition shall be made for moneys to be expended for any purpose not authorised, nor to a larger amount than authorised by the said acts, nor shall any of the moneys so deposited be used for or applied to any purpose not authorised by the said acts; such moneys when so deposited shall be paid by the chamberlain of the city only upon drafts drawn on him pursuant to a resolution of the Board, signed by the president and countersigned by the clerk of the Board, payable to the order of the commissioners of common schools, or of the trustees, managers, directors, treasurers, or other authorised officers of the respective schools or societies entitled to participate in any of such moneys on an apportionment thereof for the support of common schools, or to the order of the person or persons entitled to receive the same pursuant to any of the provisions of either of the acts enumerated in the first section of this act.

§ 3. The said Board of Education shall transmit quarter yearly to the common council of said city a detailed statement in writing of the amounts of moneys deposited to the credit of said Board for the three months next preceding the date of such report, and of the manner in which and of the specific purposes for which the same have been expended, and in such statement shall give such further and particular information in relation to such expenditures as the common council shall require, which statements shall in all cases be certified by the president and clerk of the Board to be correct and true, and when so made shall be published by the common council of said city.

§ 4. So much of the sixth, seventh, tenth, fourteenth and twentieth sections of the act hereby amended as are inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed, and all moneys raised for any of the purposes authorised by either of the acts enumerated in the first section of this act shall be deposited and drawn and paid out only as provided by this act.
